DETAILED ACTION

This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR 1.821(a)(1) and (a)(2). However, this application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.821 through 1.825 for the reason(s) set forth below or on the attached Notice To Comply With Requirements For Patent Applications Containing Nucleotide Sequence And/Or Amino Acid Sequence Disclosures.

Response to Arguments

In response to the notice to comply with the sequence rules (paper 28), mailed July 25, 2002, applicants requested to vacate said notice. Applicants argue that on May 15, 2002 an amendment that amended page 121 of the specification to more clearly identify Seq. ID. Nos. 118-120 and provided a substitute page 167 for the sequence listing. All of the pages 94, 97 etc. in the July notice have been addressed.

In response, a review of the July 13, 1998 (paper 4a) reveals the following deficiencies:

1. The statement that the contents of the paper copy and the computer readable form of the sequence listing are believed to be the same is incorrect. They should be identical and not believed to be identical.

Art Unit: 1639

2. The amendment failed to include the other sequences recited in other sections of the specification. E.g., in Tables 1 and 2, page 60. Applicants are further requested to check for other sequences in the specification that have not been assigned a Seq. ID. No. and ensure that all of the sequences in the specification are in the CRF.

3. The amendment on July 13, 1998 requesting amendment to the specification by adding Sequence ID. Nos. to the different sequences regrettably has not been entered since they are too numerous to enter individually. It is requested that applicants provide a substitute specification since the amendments would be too numerous to enter individually.

Applicant is given ONE MONTH, or THIRTY DAYS, whichever is longer, from the mailing date of this letter within which to comply with the sequence rules, 37 CFR 1.821 - 1.825. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in ABANDONMENT of the application under 37 CFR 1.821(g). Extensions of time may be obtained by filing a petition accompanied by the extension fee under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no case may an applicant extend the period for reply beyond the SIX MONTH statutory period. Direct the reply to the undersigned. Applicant is requested to return a copy of the attached Notice to Comply with the reply.
